When I say, "I am a Christian"

When I say "I am a Christian," I am not shouting that "I am clean living." I'm whispering "I was lost, but now I'm found and forgiven." When I say "I am a Christian," I don't speak of this with pride; I'm confessing that I stumble and need Christ to be my guide. When I say "I am a Christian," I'm not trying to be strong; I'm professing that I'm weak and need His strength to carry on. When I say "I am a Christian," I'm not bragging of success; I'm admitting I have failed and need God to clean my mess. When I say "I am a Christian," I'm not claiming to be perfect. My flaws are far too visible, but God believes I'm worth it. When I say "I am a Christian," I still feel the sting of pain. I have my share of heartaches, so I call upon His name. When I say "I am a Christian," I do not wish to judge, I have no authority...I only know I'm loved!!!
